SEPTEMBER 8, 1970

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The registration system at Sir George Williams University will be investigated by a 7-man principal's task force.

Principal J.W. O'Brien announced today that the task force will review the pre-packaging system used this year, identify weaknesses of the total process and make recommendations for 1971-72. It will receive briefs from all interested parties and submit a report by October 15.

Professor J.H. Whitelaw, Co-ordinator of Academic Planning, is chairman of the new task force. Other members are Registrar K.D. Adams, Asst. Dean of Arts M. Despland, Secretary for Engineering Undergraduate Studies F.D. Hamblin, Asst. Dean of Commerce H. Tutsch, Acting Dean of Science J.R. Ufford, and Asst. to the Principal M. Sheldon (secretary).
